Schedule 1: Rule 528 – Fisticuffs or Roughing

A – Referee Procedure

1. If a situation that involves pushing and shoving after the whistle, the Game Referee shall issue a warning to the coach or captain of each team.
2. If the situation continues after the warning, the Game Referee shall assess Minor penalties for Roughing. If incidents continue at future stoppages, the Game Referee may assess Misconduct penalties.
3. If a situation arises that warrants the assessment of multiple Game Misconduct penalties, the Game Referee shall ensure that all assessed Game Misconduct Penalties are recorded on the Official Game Sheet.
4. When a Major plus Game Misconduct Penalty is assessed under this rule, it is to be recorded and announced as “Roughing”.
5. When a Match penalty is assessed under this rule, it is to be recorded and announced as “Fisticuffs”.
6. Fisticuffs or Roughing may be called even though the players still have their gloves on.
7. In a situation involving Fisticuffs, it is possible that one player may be assessed a Match Penalty and the other a Major Plus a Game Misconduct Penalty.
8. A Minor, Double Minor or Major Penalty plus Game Misconduct penalty may be assessed for Roughing.
9. Whenever a Match Penalty is assessed for Fisticuffs, whether one, two or more players receive such penalties, the incident must be classified as a fight. In the case of retaliation by a player, a Major Penalty plus Game Misconduct penalty may be assessed in this case.
10. A player cannot be assessed a Match Penalty plus a Game Misconduct penalty for continuing to fight.
11. Two players may be assessed Match Penalties for Fisticuffs without having an aggressor or instigator.
12. Where it is obvious that one player is the instigator or aggressor, that player may be assessed a Match penalty and the other player a Major plus Game Misconduct, depending upon the degree of retaliation.

13. The “third man in” rule applies only to the first player of each team to intervene in an altercation. The assessment of only one penalty constitutes an altercation however the ruling requires judgment as to whether the player actually became involved.
14. A Game Misconduct penalty is to be assessed to the first player of each team who intervenes in an incident where a Match or Major penalty is assessed. A Game Misconduct penalty is also to be assessed to one or both players.

When a fisticuff or roughing incident occurs, all other players except the goalkeeper shall immediately retire to the front of their respective benches (unless the fisticuff, fight or roughing is occurring in front of one of the players’ team bench), or to a neutral zone as designated by the Game Referee and remain there until the Game Referee calls them back to resume play. The goaltenders must stay in their goal creases or proceed to a neutral zone if so designated by the Game Referee. Any player(s) refusing to do so after being instructed by the Game Referee shall be assessed a Misconduct Penalty, plus any other penalty that may be incurred.
